

Femicides and disappearances during the pandemic

1200

missing women

*Declarations of minister of women and vulnerable populations Clotia Montenegro

36

femicides

*Declarations of minister of women and vulnerable populations Clotia Montenegro

Domestic and sexual violence became visible during the sanitary emergency, but Trafficking in Persons remains invisible.

And the victims of Trafficking in persons? Where are they?

Children, teenagers and women:

victims during the pandemic

Many women, children and teenagers continued being victims of many forms of violence that affected their lives and dignity during the months of national emergency.

Family and sexual violence

600

sexual aggressions to girls during the pandemic

*Declarations of minister of women and vulnerable populations Clotia Montenegro (28/07/20)

67 712

attended cases of violence through Línea 100

*Declarations of minister of women and vulnerable populations Clotia Montenegro

Online sexual exploitation of children and teenagers

50

reports of grooming, sexual harassment and distribution of child pornography

Between March and June. Source: PNP (DIVINDAT)

What happened to trafficking in persons?

Victims are usually women and young people captured through false job positions, study offers or through social media.

15

reports of trafficking in persons reported by the National Police of Peru

Between April and June 2020

